

SUMMER ROAD TRIP

Faith on the Move

August 1 & 2, 2020

So he complained to the LORD about it: “Didn’t I say before I left home that you would do this, LORD? That is why I ran away to Tarshish! I knew that you are a merciful and compassionate God, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. You are eager to turn back from destroying people.”
- Jonah 4:2 NLT

Reflect

Read the full passage in your Bible - Jonah 3:3-4:2.

What sticks out or grabs your attention from the scripture readings?

Examine your own heart: Have you ever wished God would destroy rather than be merciful?

What does it mean for you that Jonah was reluctantly obedient and deeply prejudiced, and yet God still worked through him?

Live It Out

Who is someone you can't stand, and what keeps you from loving them? This week pray that God would change your heart. What would it look like to reach out to that person with kindness?

Pray

Talk to God about what's stirring in your heart from the scriptures. Listen for his response.

Confess your sins before God. Name specific sins of being merciless and wishing evil upon others.

Thank God that he is merciful and compassionate, slow to get angry and full of unfailing love.
